

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tuesday January 25th, 2022

We acknowledge the Lekwungen-speaking peoples of the Esquimalt and Songhees First Nations on whose traditional territories we live, learn, and do our work

LIBRARY

Check out the library's "January Blues" collections – they are guaranteed to have the opposite effect, since they are books with humor, love, and lightness -- something we all need right now! They are on display until Friday so check them out!

BATTLESNAKES CLUB

Are you interested in programming? Want to learn how to code an A.I. Want to compete in world wide tournaments? Then come join us in room 3 the computer lab tomorrow Wednesday January 26th at lunch to find out more about Battlesnakes.

CAREER CENTRE

Black Ball press is holding their annual Career and Post-Secondary Education event January 31st-February 4th. This is an excellent event for students to explore employment and education opportunities in Victoria. Most events are just 30 mins long, and you only sign up for sessions you are interested in. Find more information and sign up on Vic High Careers site or see Samantha in the Career Centre

Do you want a career that will be focused on sustainability? Whether you are thinking Environmental lawyer, housing developer, fashion design or robotics engineer, there is a way to make it sustainable. Attend Green Bricks Green Collar Career Conference and connect with successful people on a sustainable career path and other like-minded students from all over BC on Saturday, February 12, 2022 from 9:00 - 3:00. Go to the Vic High Careers page or see Samantha in the Career Center for more information and to sign up. This is a virtual event, and registration is limited.
