SPIRIT WEEK

Today is Class Colour Day! Show your grade pride and represent! We're almost at the end of Spirit Week, and the competition for that FREE box of Timbits is close. Make sure you're helping your A Block stay in the lead! Don't forget that tomorrow is Black & Gold Day!

ATTENTION GRADS

Please be reminded that applications for all of the Vic High and Alumni scholarships, including the Jeff Strang, Randy Smith, and Margaret Cameron Memorial Scholarships are due on Thursday at 3:15pm.

No late applications will be accepted. If you have any questions, please email Mr. Wallace or see him in room 308.

FRENCH WEEK

The French consume around 25,000 tons of snails each year.

Question for the daily contest:

Which famous museum in Paris, France, houses the painting, Mona Lisa?

Congratulations to Senora McKay's B block class who won the French Immersion week trivia contest! Teachers, please check your mailboxes for today's trivia question so you can get in on all the fun!

A reminder to everyone to stop by the collaboration space outside room 226 at lunch today to taste a treat inspired by the South of France!

LIBRARY NEWS

This week's reading theme is Francophone-authored fiction. Find them on the library's wall display!

Additionally, the reading theme for March and the first half of April is True Crime. Find out about forensic science, the history of incarceration, famous cases such as Jack the Ripper and much more!

Be sure to sign out these books and other reading possibilities for spring break!

LAHAL

Hello Lahal team – this is a reminder that there is a meeting today at lunch in the Indigenous Education classroom.

CAREER CENTRE

Thinking about the University of Calgary? Already applied?
