Friday, March 13, 2026

We acknowledge the Lekwungen-speaking peoples of the Esquimalt and Songhees First Nations on whose traditional territories we live, learn, and do our work.

SPIRIT WEEK

Happy Friday! Today is Black and Gold Day to support the Students vs. Staff Basketball Game! Make sure you're repping black and gold and come out to cheer loud and proud. Let's end Spirit Week strong!

ATTENTION GRADS

Please be reminded that applications for all of the Vic High and Alumni scholarships, including the Jeff Strang, Randy Smith, and Margaret Cameron Memorial Scholarships are due on Thursday at 3:15pm.

No late applications will be accepted. If you have any questions, please email Mr. Wallace or see him in room 308.

FRENCH WEEK

Quebec City is considered the birthplace of French civilization in North America, founded in 1608.

Question for the daily contest:

What large river runs through Quebec and was a key route for early European explorers?

Congratulations to Ms. Minter's B block class who won the French Immersion trivia contest yesterday!

Thank you to all staff and students for helping us celebrate French language and culture this week! It has been francoFUN!!!!

LIBRARY NEWS

This week's reading theme is Francophone-authored fiction. Find them on the library's wall display!

Additionally, the reading theme for March and the first half of April is True Crime. Find out about forensic science, the history of incarceration, famous cases such as Jack the Ripper and much more!

Be sure to sign out these books and other reading possibilities for spring break!

LOCKERS

Reminder to students - please clean out your lockers before leaving for the break. Do not leave any food or drinks behind.
