

ANNOUNCEMENTS

#WEAREVICHIGH

Friday, April 24, 2026

We acknowledge the Lekwungen-speaking peoples of the Esquimalt and Songhees First Nations on whose traditional territories we live, learn, and do our work.

LIBRARY

This week's reading theme is "All Things Shakespeare" since it's Shakespeare's birthday on April 23. Find graphic novels of well-known plays, and easy-to-read titles such as "Shakespeare - a Graphic Guide" and "Shakespeare the illustrated edition. Shakespeare is more accessible than you might think! The stories told in his plays are also timeless, dealing with universal human issues.

LAHAL

Congratulations to the Vic high Lahal team for an incredible run at our last tournament. Shout out to the whole team for playing with positivity and helping clean up.

TRACK

Attention track athletes. Excellent performances from all our athletes at Wednesday's track meet! And congrats to Gus for winning high jump! There is practice today after school. Meet Ms. Trumpy on the track.

VOLLEYBALL

Attention Vic High volleyball players! We are having a drop-in beach volleyball practice today. All players are welcome and no experience is necessary!

TEXTILE STUDENTS

This announcement is for all students who have taken a Textiles course here at Vic High. Two important events are coming up in the month of May you NEED to know about!! First - Ms. Adamschek is gathering entries from all current and previous Textiles students for The City of Gardens Quilt Show happening at Perks Arena. PLEASE contact Ms. Adamschek if you are willing and able to bring back one of your previous quilt projects to loan to Ms. Adamschek to enter Vic High into the Competition.

Second we will be having a Home Economics Fashion Show during the Vic High 150 Anniversary. Calling all previous Textiles students to drop by the Textiles classroom to let Ms. Adamschek know you are keen and able to take part in this. We will be having meetings during focus block in the Month of May to get ready for this amazing event.

I repeat - Quilt Show and a Fashion Show- sound interesting? Pop by the Textiles classroom for more information from Ms. Adamschek.
