#WEAREVICHIGH

We acknowledge the Lekwungen peoples of the Esquimalt and Songhees First Nations on whose traditional territories we live, learn, and do our work.

LIBRARY NEWS

This week's reading theme is Start a Series! The library has acquired many new thriller series in the genres of science fiction, dystopian fiction, and romance fiction -- and has completed many series that had missing volumes. Check them out on the wall display all week long!

POLICE CAMP INFO SESSION

Are you in Grade 10–12 and interested in Police Camp? This eight-day experience is all about leadership, teamwork, physical challenges, life skills, and learning alongside local police officers.

Come to find out what Police Camp is all about and how to apply!

October 2 at Lunch

Room 100 – across from the Career Centre

VIC HIGH STUDENTS

Are you looking to meet new people, celebrate different cultures, and get more involved at school? The Students of SOCA are looking for new members! Come hang out, help plan fun events, share your culture, and make a positive impact in our school community. We meet every OTHER Monday at lunch in Room 318, no experience needed and EVERYONE is welcome! Next meeting is Monday September 28th, so bring a friend and come check us out! We'd love to see you there!

GRADS

CLC lists have been posted. You can see them on the Grad Google Classroom or check in with Ms Reside, Ms Conkin, or Mme Morrison to find out which teacher you have or if there is an error or omission. Check these as soon as possible and join the correct CLC google classroom.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Attention grads! If you are considering applying for scholarships this year, you are invited to an application workshop on Monday at lunch in room 308.

ORANGE SHIRT DAY

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation is observed on September 30th and is a day where we acknowledge all those who were affected by the residential school system. The day is also known as Orange Shirt Day. This day provides an opportunity to deepen our own and Canada's understanding of the intergenerational effects of residential schools and creates time to reflect on their enduring legacy as part of the ongoing journey toward truth, healing, and reconciliation.

JUNIOR GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

There will be a meeting in room 102 today at Lunch!

FILM CLUB

Everyone interested in joining the film club, come to a meeting in the drama room today at lunch!!
