#WEAREVICHIGH

We acknowledge the Lekwungen peoples of the Esquimalt and Songhees First Nations on whose traditional territories we live, learn, and do our work.

LIBRARY NEWS

This week's reading theme is all about Truth and Reconciliation. There are heart-wrenching memoirs about life in Residential Schools, plus easy-reading books that will inform you all about Orange Shirt Day and what reconciliation can look like year-round. Find a selection of 12 titles displayed on the wall shelves of the library!

POLICE CAMP INFO SESSION

Are you in Grade 10–12 and interested in Police Camp? This eight-day experience is all about leadership, teamwork, physical challenges, life skills, and learning alongside local police officers.

Come to find out what Police Camp is all about and how to apply!

October 2 at Lunch

Room 100 – across from the Career Centre

VIC HIGH STUDENTS

There is a SOCA meeting happening today, at lunch, in room 318. No experience needed and EVERYONE is welcome, so bring a friend and come check us out! We'd love to see you there!

GRADS

CLC lists have been posted. You can see them on the Grad Google Classroom or check in with Ms Reside, Ms Conkin, or Mme Morrison to find out which teacher you have or if there is an error or omission. Check these as soon as possible and join the correct CLC google classroom.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Attention grads! If you are considering applying for scholarships this year, you are invited to an application workshop on TODAY at lunch in room 308.

ORANGE SHIRT DAY

Continuing with information about the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, today we explain more behind Orange Shirt Day. Orange Shirt Day tops often come with the words "Every Child Matters". Phyllis Webstad chose these words because when she first went to residential schools, she was stripped of her culture and believed she didn't matter anymore. It was chosen as a way to combat those feelings that she and many Residential School Survivors share. Every child matters does not only represent the Indigenous people, but it also represents every child. It is meant to connect all children, present, past and future. Remember to wear your orange shirt in solidarity and honour on Tuesday, September 29th.

JUGGLING CLUB

The juggling club is happening today after school. We meet in the foyer in between the multipurpose room and the vending machines. Hope to see you there.

THE BOARDGAME CAFE IS RETURNING

Come to room 100 at lunch on Thursdays for games and fun. Everyone is welcome.
