#WEAREVICHIGH

We acknowledge the Lekwungen peoples of the Esquimalt and Songhees First Nations on whose traditional territories we live, learn, and do our work.

LIBRARY NEWS

This week's reading theme is "Orange is the New Black." All 12 featured titles have orange in their covers -- but nothing else in common. And one of the book is titled "Orange is the New Black," the book upon which the television series was based. Check these titles out all week long!

INTERESTED IN NURSING OR A CAREER IN HEALTH CARE?

PNUR 101 (Intro to the Human Body) is a dual-credit course that lets you earn college and high school credits while getting a head start on your future in nursing or health care. You can take this course in semester 2 IF you have successfully completed Anatomy and Physiology 12 in Semester 1. Interested? Come down to the Career Centre to apply BEFORE October 19th!

DID YOU ORDER SCHOOL SPIRIT WEAR?

It has now arrived and can be picked up in room 102 from Mr. Phillips!

GRATITUDE WEEK IS OFFICIALLY HERE!

This week, we're celebrating what makes our school community special by asking people around VicHigh what they're grateful for. Check out the VicHigh Instagram for gratitude interviews. Head to Instagram to see what our staff, teachers and students are grateful for!

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

We're celebrating with a big one. On Wednesday, October 21st, come to the Multi-Purpose Room during PATH, 2:15-3:15. We've got games, with candy prizes, plus a dance. Spots are limited, so sign up on the weekly PATH block sheet - Don't miss it!

LEARNING OPPORTUNITY

There's still time to apply for TEAC 105 in Semester 2! Explore civil and mechanical engineering, electronics, and computer science through hands-on projects. Earn 4 high school credits while discovering exciting career possibilities in engineering! Interested? Come see Sam in the Career Centre for an application!
